City Receives Distinguished Budget Presentation Award

The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) recently awarded the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award to Lake Havasu City, Arizona, for its current budget. This award is the highest form of recognition in governmental budgeting, and its attainment represents a significant accomplishment by the city and its management. Additionally, as the individuals primarily responsible for preparing the city's budget, Sandy McCormack, Budget Manager, and Stefanie Morris, Budget Accountant, were also recognized with the Certificate of Recognition for Budget Presentation. "This is the fourteenth year that the City has earned the award," said City Finance Director Gayle Whittle.

The GFOA is a non-profit professional association serving over 17,600 government finance professionals throughout North America. The GFOA's Distinguished Budget Presentation Awards Program is the only national awards program in governmental budgeting. The program was established 1984 to encourage and assist state and local governments to prepare budget documents of the very highest quality that reflect both the guidelines established by the National Advisory Council on State and Local Budgeting and the GFOA's recommended practices on budgeting.
