Police seek assistance in residential golf course burglaries

The Lake Havasu City Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in solving multiple burglaries of residential homes located in the golf course area of Lake Havasu City. In the past three weeks at least five burglaries of homes have occurred. Residents are reminded to be aware of their surroundings and report any suspicious activities in their neighborhood to the police department. Always remember to keep all windows and doors secured when away from your residence. These cases remain under investigation by the Lake Havasu City Police Department. Citizens with information regarding suspicious activity in neighborhoods surrounding the golf course area are encouraged to contact the Criminal Investigations Bureau at 928-855-5775.

Contact: Sergeant Joe Harrold 928-855-1171
